INDEX OF PRINCIPAL MATTERS

IN THE STATUTES CONTAINED IN VOLUME V.

PREFACE TO THIS VOLUME.

THE FIFTH VOLUME of THE STATUTES OF THE REALM contains the Statutes from the Commencement of the Reign of King Charles I. A. D. 1625, to the End of the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of King Charles II. A. D. 1680.

IN conformity with the Plan laid down in the Introduction to the First Volume, and pursued in the subsequent Volumes, certain Acts which are not to be found on the Inrollment in Chancery have been printed from the Original Bills or Acts preserved in the Parliament Office; and in every Instance where an Act is not printed from the Inrollment in Chancery, a Note is annexed, stating that it has been printed from the Original Act, and the Number of the Act in the Bundle of Acts at the Parliament Office is referred to in the Margin.

It is obvious, that in such Cases the Numbers of the Chapters could not be preserved uniformly with the Numbers of the Chapters in the common printed Editions, but it has been thought right to preserve the usual Arrangement of Chapters in conformity with those Editions whenever it could be done. In the 18 & 19 Car. II. p. 601. and in the 19 & 20 Car. II. p. 624. and p. 630. that Arrangement will be found to be broken; the Reason for which is stated in a Note at the Bottom of those Pages respectively.

As the important Uses for which this Collection of the Statutes has been prepared must depend wholly upon the Accuracy with which each particular Statute has been compared with the Record, of which it professes to be a Copy; a short Statement of the Means employed for this Purpose, in this and the subsequent Volumes, will shew what Degree of Confidence may be placed in their Authenticity.

THE MS. Copy of the Acts contained in each Volume is, in the first Place, collated with the Inrollment in Chancery, or, if the Act be not inrolled there, with the Original Act in the Parliament Office, by competent Persons employed for that Purpose, and is then delivered to the undersigned Sub-Commissioner by whom this and the subsequent Volumes are prepared for the Press; the same Copy, with the Addition of the Marginal Notes, framed by him, is then delivered to the King's Printer, and the Sheets, as worked off, are sent, together with a due Proportion of the Copy, from the King's Printer's Office, to the Collator, to be examined by him, and the Revises are then collated by him at the Parliament Office with the Original Act, and the Variations, if any, noted and returned to the Sub-Commissioner: The Sub-Commissioner thereupon finally collates the same with the Record, and the Sheets, upon such final Collation, are printed off. Where any manifest Error or Deficiency appears to exist both in the Inrollment and in the Original Act, Recourse has been had to the King's Printer's Copy, and the Variation stated in a Note, in each respective Case, at the Bottom of the Page.

THE CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE to this Volume is framed upon the Principle adopted in the preceding Volumes; but the Titles of the Acts on the Inrollment in Chancery and in the Parliament Office agreeing, except in very few Instances, it has not been deemed necessary to repeat them; they are stated, therefore, in one Column in the Words in which they appear on the Inrollment in Chancery, and the Variations are referred to in a Note as they occur.

IN the Index to this Volume, the several Matters contained in the Statutes comprized in it are classed under General Heads, and the substance of the Enactment of each Statute, and of each Section, if the Statute contain Two or more Sections, is succinctly stated, proceeding under each Head chronologically; and in order to show the present State of the Law on each respective Head where any Alteration of the Law has taken place, References are inserted to the amending or repealing Act immediately after the Statement of the particular Statute or Section containing the original Enactment.

Two Engravings, one of the Petition of Right, 3 Charles I., and the other of the Act for a perpetual Anniversary Thanksgiving on the Nine-and-twentieth Day of May, 12 Charles II. are inserted respectively at Pages 23 and 237 of this Volume.

LONDON,
March 1819.

JOHN RAITHBY,
SUB-COMMISSIONER.

The Petition exhibited to his maiestie by the lord spiritual and temporal and Commons in this pnt Parliament assembled touching w divers right and liberties of the Subject: With the King maiesties joyall answer thereto in full Parliament.

To the King most excellent maiestie.

Humble sheweth unto your moste excellent lord the King the lord spiritual and temporal and Commons in parliament assembled, That whereas it is declared and enacted by a Statute made in the tyme of the Reigne of King Edward the first commonly called Statutum de tallagio non concedendo, That no tallage or aide should be layd or levied by the King or his heires in this Realme without the good will and assent of the Archbishops Bishops Eyles Abbes Knight Burgesses and other the freemen of the Commonalties of this Realme. And by authoritie of Parliament holden in the fide and twentieth yeare of the Reigne of King Edward the third, it is declared and enacted, That from henceforth no pson should be compelled to make any loanes to the King against his will because such loanes were against w reason and the franchise of the land, And by other lattes of this Realme it is provided, that none should be charged by any charge or imposition called a benevolence nor by such like charge by which the Statutes before mentioned and other the good lattes and Statutes of this Realme your Subject have enjoyed this freedom that they should be compelled to contribute to any charge tallage aide or other like charge not sett by common consent in w Parliament.

yet notwithstanding of late divers Commissions dyrected to sundry Commissioners in severall Counties with Instructions have issued, by meanes whereof your people have been in divers places assembled and requied to lend certayne sommes of money unto your maiestie, and many of them upon their refusalle ode to doe have had in such admynistred unto them not dayantable by the lattes or Statutes of this Realme, and have been constrained to become bound to make appaunte w and give attendance before your Pryvie Councell and in other places, and other of them have been therefore imprisoned confined and sundry other wares molested and disquieted And divers other charges have been laid and levied upon your people in severall Counties by lord lieutenants Deputy lieutenants w Commissioners for musters Justices of peace and others by command or w direction from your maiestie or your Pryvie Councell against the lattes and free customes of the Realme.

And whereas also by the Statute called the great Charte of the liberties of England, It is declared and enacted, That no freeman may be taken or w imprisoned or be disseised of his freehold or liberties or his free Customs or be outlawed or exiled or in any maner destroyed, but by the lawfull Judgment of his Peeres or by the law of the land.

And in the eight and twentieth yeare of the Reigne of King Edward the third it was declared and enacted by authoritie of Parliament, That no man of w what estate or condition that he be, should be put out of his land or tenement nor taken nor imprisoned nor disquieted nor put to death without being brought to answer by due process of law.

Nevertheless against the tenor of the said Statutes and other the good lattes and Statutes of your Realme to that end provided, divers of your Subject have of late been imprisoned without any cause shewed: And when for they w delivraunce they were brought before your Justices by your maiesties writt of w habeas corpus they were to undergoe and receive as the Court should order, and w they were commanded to certifye the causes of their detaynment, no cause was certified, but that they were detened by your maiesties speciall command signified by the lord of your Pryvie Councell, and yet were returned backe to severall w prisons without being charged with any thing to which they might make answer according to the lattes.

And whereas of late great Companies of Condiere and waynere have been w disseised into divers Counties of the Realme, and the Inhabitant against their will have been compelled to receive them into their houses and there to suffer them to dooynne against the lattes and Customes of this Realme and to the great w greivance and vexation of the people.

And whereas also by authoritie of Parliament in the fide and twentieth yeare of the Reigne of King Edward the third it is declared and enacted That no man should be forejudged of life or limb against the forme of the great Charte w and the lattes of the land. And by the said great Charte, and other the w lattes and Statutes of this your Realme no man ought to be adjudged to death but by the lattes established in this your Realme, either by the customes of the same Realme or by Act of Parliament. And whereas no Offendor of what w kinde soever is exempted from the proceeding to be used and punishment to be inflicted by the lattes and Statutes of this your Realme, Nevertheless of late divers Commissions under your maiesties great Seale have issued forth, by which certayne psons have been assigned and appointed Commissioners with power w and authoritie to proceed within the land according to the Justice of martiall lattes against such Condiere or waynere or other dissolute psons joining w with them as should commit any mytchell robbery felony mutiny or other w outrage or misdemeanour whatsoever, and by such summary course and order as is agreeable to martiall lattes and as is used in armies in tyme of war to proceed to the capture and condemnation of such offenders, and them to cause to be executed and putt to death according to the lattes martiall.

By ptext whereof some of your maiesties Subject have been by some of the said Commissioners put to death, when and where, if by the lattes and Statutes of the land they had deserved death, by the same lattes and Statutes also w they might and by no other ought to have been judged and executed.

And also sundry greivous offenders by colour thereof claiming an exemption have escaped the punishment due to them by the lattes and Statutes of this your Realme, by reason that divers of your Officers and Ministers of Justice w have unjustly refused or forborne to proceed against such Offendors according to the same lattes and Statutes upon pteuce that the said Offendors w were punishable onely by martiall lattes and by authoritie of such Commissions as aforesaid. Which Commissions and all other of like nature are wholly and w directly contrary to the said lattes and Statutes of this your Realme.

They doe therefore humbly pray your moste excellent maiestie, that no man w hereafter be compelled to make or yield any gift loane benevolence charge or w such like charge without common consent by Act of Parliament, And that none be called to make answer or take such oath or to give attendance or be w confined or otherwise molested or disquieted concerning the same or for refusal thereof. And that no freeman in any such manner as is before mentioned be w imprisoned or detained. And that your maiestie should be pleased to remove the said Condiere and waynere and that your people may not be soe furthered in w tyme to come. And that the aforesaid Commissions for proceeding by martiall lattes may be revoked and annulled. And that hereafter no Commissions of like nature w may issue forth to any pson or psons whatsoever to be executed as aforesaid, lest by colour of them any of your maiesties Subject be destroyed or put to death w contrary to the lattes and franchise of the land.

All which they most humbly pray of your moste excellent maiestie as their w right and liberties according to the lattes and Statutes of this Realme, And that your maiestie should also vouchsafe to declare that the aforesaid doing and proceeding to the pndice of your people in any of the pmisses shal not be w taken hereafter into consequence or example. And that your maiestie should be also graciously pleased for the further comfort and safetie of your people to declare your Royall will and pleasure, That in the thing aforesaid all your Officers and Ministers shal obey you according to the lattes and Statutes of this Realme as they tender the honor of your maiestie and the prosperitie of this kingdom. IN most humble manner doe beseech your most Excellent Majestie your true and loyall Subject^e the Ten^{nt} of the Lordshipp^e of Bromfeild and Yale in your Highnes Countie of Denbigh, That whereas the Lordships and Mannors of Bromfeild and Yale within the Countie of Denbigh in or about the tenth yeare of the Raigne of King Henry the seaventh were forfeited and came to the Crowne of England by the attainder of Sir William Stanley Knight, Before which time the Tennant^e of the said Lordships or Mannors had tyme out of minde of man held and enjoyed divers Messuages Land^e Tenement^e and Hereditament^e being part and parcell of the said Lordships and Mannors clayming to hold the same to them and their heires by Coppie of Court Rolle and to have therein a customarie estate of inheritance by and under certaine yearelie Rent^e Customes and Services, And the said Messuages Land^e Tenement^e and Hereditament^e then were and by all the time aforesaid had bene by the Custome of the said Mannors discendable unto the heires of every such Ten^{nt} and the Widowes of such Ten^{nt} were therein endowable and endowed for terme of their lives as of land^e of inheritance. And likewise from and after the said forfeiture and after such cōming of the said Lordships and Mannors unto the Crowne, the said Ten^{nt} in like sort and manner claymed and peaceable and quietlie held and enjoyed their Messuages Landes Tenement^e and Hereditament^e so holden of the said Lordships or Mannors to them and their Heires by Coppie of Court Rolle without any question suite eviccion or interrupcion untill about the begynning of the Raigne of the late Queene Elizabeth of famous memorie. Att or about which tyme the said estates of the Ten^{nt} of the said Lordships or Mannors were on the behalfe of the said late Queene questioned and p^ttended not to be estates of Inheritance, and besides the said Ten^{nt} in generall were questioned for and concerning a certaine yearelie Rent of one hundred and five pound^e within the said Lordships p^ttended and alleadged to have bene therein withdrawne and decayed within the time incurred from and after the Raigne of King Edward the third or thereabout^e, And thereupon a Cōmission issued in the fourth yeare of the Raigne of the said late Queene for surveying of the said Lordships and Mannors and reviving of the said rent, uppon which Cōmission although it could not be discovered by any matter of record or otherwise which of the said Messuages Land^e or Tenement^e were liable or chargeable to or with the said yearelie rent of one hundred and five pound^e soe p^ttended to have bene decayed, yet by pswasion [of¹] the then Cōmissioners a Composi^cōn was then had and made by and betweene the said Cōmissioners on the behalfe of the said late Queene and the said Ten^{nt} That they the said Ten^{nt} should surrender and relinquish their said Customary Estates of Inheritance and revive the said decayed Rent of one hundred and five pound^e p^p Annū and also pay unto the said late Queene for a Fine the sōme of eight hundred pound^e of lawfull mony of England, And that for and in consideration thereof the said Ten^{nt} their Heires and Assignes should have good firme and ppetuall Estates in their said Messuages Land^e Tenement^e and Hereditament^e by Leases successivelie to be made unto them from forty yeeres to forty yeeres for ever. In pursuance and pformance of which agreement and Composi^cōn the said Ten^{nt} did relinquish and surrender their said Customarie Estates of Inheritance charged their said Messuages Land^e and Tenement^e with the said Rent of one hundred and five pound^e p^p Annū which hath ever sithence been accordinglie payd, and paid to the said late Queene the said Fine of eight hundred pound^e, And severall Leases were thereupon alsoe made unto the said Ten^{nt} from the said late Queene of their said severall and respective Messuages Land^e Tenement^e and Hereditament^e for fortie yeares with a Coven^{nt} from the said late Queene in every of the said Leases conteyned for the renewing of the same Leases from time to time uppon expiracion surrender or otherwise for like Terme and Rent, paying onelie two yeares old Rent for a Fine for such new Lease, And the said Agreement and Composi^cōn was firmelie and inviolable holden and kept during the reigne of the said late Queene : and howsoever as well during that time as in the beginning of the raigne of our late Sovereigne Lord King James of famous memorie the said Composi^cōn were questioned and sought to be impeached by some who had obtayned Graunt^e of part of the said Mannors uppon p^ttence that the said Coven^{nt} did not binde the Crowne yet uppon severall Suit^e thereupon in His Majesties Court of Exchequer Chamber severall Decrees were there had and made, whereby the said Composi^cōn was ratified and confirmed and the said Coven^{nt} holden and decreed to be reall and to binde the Crowne and all others clayming any Estate in the said Lordships or Mannors from or under the Crowne whereby the said estate of the Ten^{nt} aforesaid were againe settled in peace and quiett and so by them holden and enjoyed and new Leases were from time to time made unto the said Ten^{nt} by and from the said late King according to the Composi^cōn aforesaid untill the said late King in and by his Highnes Letters Patent^e sealed with the Great Seale of England bearing date at Westminster the eighteenth day of Februarie in the fourteenth yeere of his said late Majesties raigne of England did give and graunte unto your Majestie being then Prince of Wales amongst other thing^e the said Lordships Mannors Land^e and Tenement^e of Bromfeild and Yale. To have and to hold to your Majestie being Prince and to your Heires King^e of England in augmentation and increase of the land^e and possessions of the principalitie of Wales and of your Highnes being Prince, and by the said tres Patent^e did unite and annex the said Lordships and Mannors, and willed and declared the same to be united and annexed to the said Principalitie.

AFTER which time that is to saie in or about the twentieth yeare of the said late King^e raigne the said Composi^cōn and agreement so as aforesaid made in the fourth yeere of the raigne of the said late Queene was againe questioned by the Cōmissioners of the Revenue of your Majestie then Prince of Wales so as the said Ten^{nt}

Two Parliaments,

To the fourth Demand Craving that his Majesty may be graciously pleased to declare as an Act of his Royall Justice serving much to his own honour for the establishing of his Throne and for the good and peace of both Kingdomes that whosoever shall be found upon triall and examination by the Estates of either of the two Parliaments (they judging against the persons subject to their owne authority) to have been the authours and causers of the late and present troubles and combustion whether by labouring to make and foment division betwixt the King and his people or betwixt the two Nations or any other way shall be lyable to the censure and sentence of the said Parliaments respectively conform to the paper of December 9. 1640. Fifth Demand, as to Restoration of Ships and Goods,
and Answer thereto.

The fifth demand. That their Ships and Goods and all damage thereof may be restored. And further it was agreed upon the seventh of January $\frac{1640}{1641}$ that all Ships taken and stayed should be recipocally restored on both Sides and that the Scottish Commissioners having informed that about fourscore ships of Scotland are yet stayed in the Ports and are like to suffer much further losse and damage if they shall not be delivered into some hands who may have care of them It is agreed for the more speedy expeding of the Scottish Shippes and that the owners thereof be not longer damnified by the want of them that warrants shall be presently granted for delivery of all their ships and that four thousand pounds be presently advanced for Caulking Sail Cordage and other necessities for helping the present setting forth of the said Ships And for the rest of this Article when it shall come in the sixt demand it shall be agreed unto septimo Januarij $\frac{1640}{1641}$.

Sixth Demand,
as to the friendly Assistance and Relief to Scotland,
and Answer thereto.

To the sixt demand Concerning the losses which the Kingdome of Scotland hath sustained and the vast charges they have beene put unto by the occasion of the late troubles and the reparations desired from the justice and kindnes of the Kingdome of England toward releife thereof in manner and upon the Grounds expressed in the paper of the seaventh of January $\frac{1640}{1641}$. It is answered that this House thinks fit that a freindly assistance and releife shall be given towards supply of the losses and necessities of the Scots and that in due time this House will take into consideration the measure and manner of it conforme to the paper of the two and twentieth of January $\frac{1640}{1641}$. And further the Parliament upon the third of February did declare that they did conceive that the sum of three hundred thousand pounds is a fit proportion of that freindly assistance and releife formerly thought fit to be given towards supply of the losses and necessities of their brethren of Scotland and that the House would in due time take into consideration the manner how and the time when the same shall be raised conforme to the paper of the third of February $\frac{1640}{1641}$. and given in to the Treaty upon the fifth thereof And Whereas it was desired by the Scottish Commissioners that the English Commissioners would let them know from the Parliament the security manner and termes of payment of the foresaid sum of three hundred thousand pounds and of the arreares due for [the'] releife of the Northerne Counties. It was agreed unto by Warrant and Order of the Parliament that they should have fourscore thousand pounds as a part of the foresaid sum of three hundred thousand pounds with the whole arreares due to the Army before the disbanding thereof conforme to the paper of the 26 of May 1641. and given into the treaty the 27 of the said moneth. And concerning the security for payment of the remanent of the said sum of three hundred thousand pounds which is arrear extending to two hundred & twenty thousand pounds It is resolved and agreed unto by both Houses of Parliament that an Act of Parliament of publike faith shall passe for security thereof And that one moyetie or equall halfe of the same extending to one hundred and ten thousand pounds shall be paid at Midsomer in anno 1642. and the other moiety or equall halfe to ⁽²⁾ payed at Midsomer in anno 1643 as the order of the House of Parliament of the 19 and 25 dayes of June 1641 do more fully purport And in like manner Whereas it was desired by the Scottish Commissioners that they might know to whom they should adresse themselves for payment of the sūms at the dayes appointed by the Parliament conforme to the Parliaments determination of the nineteenth of June Secondly at what place the payment should be made Thirdly That a safe conduct may be granted for the secure transporting of the moneys to Scotland at the termes of payment agreed upon. It is answered and resolved by the Parliament That these Earles Lords and Commissioners following shall be the persons to whom the Scots shall adresse themselves for the receiving of the sūms at the dayes appointed by the Parliament Earle of Bedford Earle of Essex Earle of Warwick Earle of Holland Earle of Stanford Lord Wharton Lord Mandevill Lord Brooke Mr Martin Sir Thomas Barrington Mr Capell Sir Arthur Ingram Sir Gilbert Gerrard Sir Robert Pye Mr Henry Bellasis Sir Walter Erle Sir William Litton Sir Henry Mildmay Sir Thomas Cheek Sir John Strangwaies Mr Arthur Goodwin Mr Hampden Alderman Soame Alderman Pennington. Resolved upon the Question That the place of payment shall be the Chamber of London. Resolved upon the Question. That a safe conduct shall be granted for the secure transporting of the money to Scotland at the termes of Payment agreed upon at the charge of the Scotts conforme to the paper of the 22. June 1641.

To the seventh Demand Desiring that as his Majesty hath approven the Acts of the late Parliament wherein all such declarations proclamations books libels and pamphlets as have beene made written or published against his loyall and dutifull subjects of Scotland are recalled and ordained to be suppressed and destroyed so his Majesty may be pleased to give order that the same may be recalled suppressed and forbidden in England and Ireland and that the loyalty integrity and faithfulness of his Majesties subjects of Scotland towards his Majesties Roiall person and Gouvernement may at the closing of the Treaty of Peace and the time of publique thanksgiving for the same be made known in all places and in all the parish Churches in his Majesties kingdomes. This was the more earnestly desired and confidently expected from his Majesties Justice and goodnes because no calamity or distresse hath so sore vexed or so deeply wounded the hearts of his Majesties subjects as that their loyalty and love towards their native King should have been contraverted and by the malignancie of bad instruments brought into suspition and because they unfaindly desire and pray for his Majesties happines and are resolved by all meanes and at all occasions to deny themselves and what they have for his Majesties honour as is more fully contained in the paper of the 8 of February $\frac{1640}{1641}$. It is answered upon the tenth of February $\frac{1640}{1641}$. Wee doe agree that Declarations Proclamations Acts Books Libels and [Phamplets³] that have beene made and published against the loyalty and dutifulnes of his Majesties Subjects of Scotland shall be recalled suppressed and forbidden in England and Ireland and that this be reciprocally in Scotland if any such have beene made or published there in prejudice of his Majesties honour and this upon diligent enquiry to be done by the Authority of the Parliament next sitting in Scotland of which the Commissioners of Scotland doe promise to have an especiall care And we doe alsoe agree that when it shall please Almighty God to grant a happy close of this Treaty of Peace the loyaltie of his Majesties said Subjects shall be made knowne at the time of publique thanksgiving in all places and particularly in the parish Churches of his Majesties Dominions unto which wee are the rather induced for that you expresse how deeply it hath wounded the hearts of his Majesties said Subjects that their loyaltie and love to his Majestie their native King should be brought in question and suspition whereas they unfaindly desire and pray for his Majesties happines and are resolved by all meanes and at all occasions to deny themselves and what they have for his Majesties honour 10. February $\frac{1640}{1641}$.

Seventh Demand,
as to suppressing Writings,
and Answer thereto.

Concerning the eight Demand For an happy and durable peace which is the cheifest of all our desires and unto which all our former seven Articles being now agreed upon are as many preparations we doe first of all desire that all monuments tokens and shewes of hostility upon the borders of the two Kingdomes may be taken away and that upon the reasons and considerations particularly expressed in the paper of the tenth of February $\frac{1640}{1641}$. That not only the Garrisons of Barwick and Carlisle may be removed but that the workes may be sleighted and the places dismantled. It is answered and agreed upon the fourteenth of June that his Majestie is desirous that all things betwixt the Kingdomes of England and Scotland be reduced into the same state they were in before the begining of the late troubles And therefore he doth give his assent to the advice of the two Houses of Parliament that the Garrisons of Barwick and Carlisle upon the disbanding of the Scottish Army now in England and of all

To their desire concerning unity in religion and uniformity of Church Government as a speciall meane for conserving of Peace betwixt the two kingdomes upon the grounds and reasons conteyned in the paper of the tenth of March given in to the Treaty and Parliament of England. It is answered upon the eleventh of June that his Majestie with advice of both Houses of Parliament doth approve of the affection of his subjects of Scotland in their desire of having a conformity of Church Government between the two Nations And as the Parliament hath already taken into consideration the reformation of Church Government so they will proceed therein in due time as shall best conduce to the glory of God and Peace of the Church and of both Kingdomes undecimo Junij 1641. To their desire of the Kings Majestie and the Prince their coming and residing sometimes in Scotland upon the reasons given in February 16. ¹⁶⁴⁰₁₆₄₁. It is answered upon the ninth of June that his Majesty doth take in good part the sense his subjects of Scotland have of his absence and the dutifull expression they make of their desire to have him and the Prince his sonne frequently amongst them and assuring himselfe that they have no other intention in this demand but meerly to expresse their love to his person and the welfare of his ancient Kingdome he declares unto them that as he shall finde the urgency of those affaires require his presence and his other conveniencies here permit he will repaire thither and the Prince his sonne so far as he may know and be acquainted with the people there 9 Junij 1641. To the desire concerning the manner of choosing and placing of the Officers of State Counsellors and Sessioners within the Kingdome of Scotland by advise of the Parliament upon the grounds and reasons given in March 15. ¹⁶⁴⁰₁₆₄₁. It is answered the ninth of June in his Majesties name We intend nothing more heartily and really then that our people should be governed by the Lawes of the Kingdome and that all Judges in their severall Judicatories should judge accordingly therefore wee will never allow nor permit that either Councillors Officers of State or Judges be exeamed from our and our Parliaments triall and censure for the discharging of their duties in their severall Offices and Places likewise we conceive that nothing will conduce more to the good of our service and the peaceable and happy Government of the Kingdom then that Offices of State Places of Councell and Sessions and other Judicatories be provided with honest able and qualified men for which end and because of our necessary absence from that kingdome which maketh the qualification of persons fit for places lesse known unto us Wee shall so far give eare unto the Informations of our Parliament and when our Parliament is not sitting of our Councell and Colledge of Justice as that we shall either make choice of some one of such as they by common consent upon the vacancy of the place shall recommend unto us or if wee shall conceive an other person to be fitter then any of those recommended we shall make the same knowne to the Parliament or in the time betweene Parliaments to our Councell and Session that from them we may be informed of the qualifications and abilities of the person named by us to the effect that if by their information it shall appeare to us that there is just exception against the life and qualification of the said partie we may timely nominate some other against whom there shall be no just exception by which meanes we doubt not but that wee shall from time to time chuse such honest men as for their knowne integrities and abilities shall be fit to discharge their places of Offices with that duty and sufficiency which wee and our Subjects may justly expect which intention of ours being now so fully and cleerly expressed we doubt not but will give good satisfaction to our ensuing Parliament And as we never intended to remove just and able men from their places in the Colledge of Justice so we do now declare for our peoples full satisfaction that their places shall be provided unto them Quam diu se bene gesserint And if this our answer cannot content the Scottish Commissioners we doe then remit the whole answer to be considered by us or our Commissioners and the Parliament at the next sitting thereof 9. June 1641. To their desire of placing some Scottishmen [men'] of respect about the King and Queenes Majesties and the Prince his highnes upon the grounds and reasons given in the 9 of Aprill 1641. It is answered His Majesties Goodnes and grace towards his Subjects of Scotland in placing them about his owne person in places of greatest neernes and trust hath beene such as ought to give them full satisfaction of his Royall affection towards his subjects of his native Kingdome therefore for this point his Majestie needeth only to assure them that he shall continue the same care which hitherto he hath done for their satisfaction in this particular and not onely so but shall recommend the same to the Prince his sonne that successively the kingdome of Scotland shall so taste of the care of their Sovereigns that by the grace of God they shall never want a sufficient number of honest and sufficient persons of that Nation about the Kings person and Prince against whom there shall be no just exception 9. June 1641. To their desire that none may have place about his Majestie and the Prince but such as are of the reformed religion in manner expressed in the paper 1. of April 1641. It is answered That his Majestie doth conceive that his subjects of Scotland have no intention by this proposition (especially by way of demand) to limit or prescribe unto him the choice of his servants but rather to shew their zeale to religion wherein his owne piety will make him doe therein that which may give just satisfaction to his people 9 June 1641. To their desire given in the first of Aprill concerning Copper Coin. It is answered Whereas the Scottish Commissioners have represented unto His Majestie the great prejudice sustained by the Kingdome of Scotland through the coining of Copper money which hath passed there this long time by gone for seven times above as much as the true value and worth thereof contrary to the continuall custome of that kingdome And therefore desiring that no Copper money be coyned hereafter without consent of the Estates convened in Parliament who may remedy the present prejudices the Countrey sustaines thereby and who upon good consideration of the necessity thereof in time to come may appoint such a competent proportion as is fit and as [they¹] countrey shall require for the use of the poore and for change in buying and selling of Commodities and that the same shall not passe but according to the intrinsick value thereof with the allowance of a tenth part or such a proportion as the Parliament shall thinke fitt to allow for the impression and workmanship in coyning His Majesty is graciously pleased to recommend unto the ensuing Parliament of Scotland the whole matter of Copper Coyn and remits to their consideration to take such order therein as they shall thinke fitting not onely concerning the Copper Coin to be coined hereafter but also the Copper money already coined how the same shall take vent and passe in payment in time coming conform to the paper of the 9 of June.

It is agreed unto That in the approaching Parliament of Scotland there shall be an Act of Pacification declaring that the late Commotions and troubles arising from the innovation of Religion and Corruption of Church Government by the mercy of God and the Kings Royall Wisdom and fatherly care are turned into a quiet calm and comfortable peace lest either his Majesties love or the constant loyalty of his subjects in their intentions and proceedings be hereafter called in question and that such things as have fallen forth in these tumultuous times while Lawes were silent whether prejudiciall to his Majesties honour and authority or to the lawes and liberties of the Church and Kingdome or to the particular interest of the subject (which to examine and censure in a strict course of Justice might prove an hinderance to a perfect peace) may be buried in perpetuall oblivion So it is expedient for making the peace and unity of his Majesties Dominions the more firm and faithfull and that his Majesties countenance against all fears may shine upon them all the more comfortably that an Act of Pacification and Oblivion be made in the Parliaments of all the three Kingdomes for burying in forgetfulnes all Acts of Hostility whether betwixt the King and his subjects or betweene subject and subject or which may be conceived to arise upon the coming of any English Army against Scotland or the coming of the Scottish Army into England or upon any Action Attempt Assistance counsell or [device²] having relation thereunto and falling out by the occasion of the late troubles preceding the conclusion of the treaty and the return of the Scottish Army into Scotland that the same and whatsoever hath ensued thereupon whether trenching upon the lawes and liberties of the Church and Kingdome or upon his Majesties honour and authority in no time hereafter may be called in question or resented as a wrong nationall or personall whatsoever be the quality of the person or persons or of whatsoever kind or degree civill or criminall the injury be supposed to be and that no mention be made thereof in time coming neither in judgement nor out of judgement but that it shall be held and reputed as though never any such thing had beene thought nor wrought And this to be extended not onely to all his Majesties subjects now living but to their heires executors successors and all others whom it may concerne in any time to come And for that end that by the tenour of this Statute all Judges Officers and Magistrates whatsoever be prohibited and discharged of directing of Warrants for Citation processing or executing any sentence or judgement upon record or any way molesting any of his Majesties lieges concerning the premisses in all time coming like as that his majesty for himselfe and his successours promise in verbo Principis never to come in the contrary of this Statute or Sanction nor any thing therein contained but to hold the same in all points firm and stable and shall cause it to be truly observed by all his Majesties lieges according to the tenour and intent thereof for now and ever And that in all time coming these presents shall have the full force and strength of a true and perfect security as if they were extended in most ample and legall forme Providing that the benefit of the said Statute shall no wayes be extended to any of the Scottish Prelates or to John Earle of Traquaire Sir Robert Spotswood Sir John Hay and [Master³] Walter Belcanquall cited and pursued as incendiaries betwixt the Kingdomes and betwixt the King and his people and for bribery corruption and many other grosse crimes contained in their charges generall & speciall nor to any other person who are cited and shall be found by the Parliament of Scotland in his Majesties or his Commissioners their owne hearing to be so extraordinary guilty of these and the like crimes as they cannot in Justice and with the honour of the King and Countrey passe from them Provided further that the benefit of this Act shall not be understood to extend to the favour of thieves robbers murtherers broaken men [horners⁴] outlaws nor their receptors with reservation also of the legall pursutes and processes of the Scots in Ireland for the reparation of their losses according to justice against such who have illegally wronged and persecuted them since by one of the Articles of the Treaty they are appointed to be restored to their meanes and estates. It is also to be understood that nothing is meant hereby to be done in prejudice either of the payment of the debts oughten upon promisses or security by the Scottish Army to any of the Counties or to any person there (the same being instructed before the removall of the Scottish Army) or of the arrears due to the Scottish Army or to that brotherly assistance granted them by the Parliament of England. That the great blessing of a constant and freindly conjunction of the two Kingdomes now united by allegiance and loyall subjection to one Sovereigne and Head may be firmly observed and continued to all posteritie It is agreed that an Act be past in the Parliament of England that the Kingdome of England or Ireland shall not denounce nor make war against the Kingdome of Scotland without consent of the Parliament of England as on the other part it shall be enacted there that the Kingdome of Scotland shall denounce nor make wars against the Kingdom of England or Ireland without the consent of the Parliament of Scotland. No Ships either of the Kings or Freebooters or others shall stop the trade of the Kingdome or hinder or harme their neighbour kingdome without consent of Parliament declaring a breach of Peace And if any Armies shall be levied or trade stopped and neighbors harmed or wronged the estates of the Countrey by which it is done to be obliged to pursue take and punish the Offendors with all rigour And if any of the Kingdoms assist receive or harbour them they ought to be punished as breakers of the peace and if after complaint and remonstrance to the Commissioners after mentioned and to the Parliament redresse and reparation be not made then in that case the Fourth.

5. That the extraicts of Bonds and decreits put upon record and register in Scotland may have the like faith and execution as the French Tabellions have in England and Ireland seeing they are of a like nature and deserves more credit and if this cannot be done at this time that it be remitted to the former Commission from both Parliaments. Seventh.
8. The Parliament of Scotland doe joyne their earnest and hearty desires and craves the Parliaments of Englands concurrence that none be placed about the Princes Hignesse but such as are of the reformed religion. Eighth.

10. It is desired that the Quorum to whom the Scots should addresse themselves for payment of the two hundreth and twenty thousand pounds be condescended upon. Tenth.
11. That the Order for recalling all Proclamations &c. made against his Majesties Subjects of Scotland be drawn up and intimate in due forme and time with the publique thanksgiving at all the parish churches of his Majesties Dominions. Eleventh.

The English Lords
Commissioners
Answer to the First Proposition.

The English Lords Commissioners answer.

- That upon the disbanding of the Scottish Armie the Garrisons of Barwick and Carlile shall be removed according to the Article of the treatie in that behalfe.
- to the Second. The second Article is condescended unto according to the Provision added to the Act of Pacification.
- to the Third. The third demand concerning making of War with forraigners with the other twoe Articles concerning leagues and Confederations and concerning mutuall supply and assistance against foraign Invasion is agreed to be referred to Commissioners to be chosen by his Majestie and the Parliaments.
- to the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth. As likewise the fourth fift and sixt Articles concerning Trades Commerce Naturalization mutuall priviledges and capacity and other of that nature and the demands concerning the extract of Bonds and decreits and the manner of safe conduct for transporting the moneyes from England to Scotland are all referred to be taken in consideration by the Commissioners to be appointed by both Parliaments who shall have power to advise and treat thereupon and report to the Parliament respective.
- to the Seventh. It is just that the tenor of the Commission for conserving of Peace should be agreed on by mutuall consent but the closing of the treaty not to stay hereupon but to be left to the Commissioners to be named.
- to the Eighth. To that desire concerning such as should be placed about the Prince the King hath already given a clear and satisfactory answer.
- to the Ninth. That there be an Act of Parliament of publique faith for securing the payment of 220000 pounds which is arrere of the brotherly assistance is just and order is given for it accordingly and it shall be communicated with the Scottish Commissioners that it may be a perfect security.
- to the Tenth. The tenth for appointing a Quorum for attending the payment of the money is already moved to the Parliament and will be done as is desired.
- to the Eleventh. The eleventh Article is very just and Order shall be given accordingly for recalling all Proclamations and for publique thanksgiving.
- to the Twelfth. This twelfth Article for the Castle of Edinburgh and other strengths of Scotland is to be settled betwixt his Majestie and the Commissioners of Scotland or by his Majestie and Parliament of Scotland.
- The said Treaty ratified, All which Articles are assented unto and approved by his Majestie with the advice of the Parliament of England and by the Committees of the Parliament of Scotland and are necessary for publique declaration of mutuall consent and for firme observation to be confirmed and ratified in the Parliaments of both Kingdomes. Be it therefore enacted by his Majestie with the assent of the Lords and Commons in this present Parliament assembled that the said Treaty and the Articles thereof assented unto as aforesaid be and stand for ever ratified and established and have the force vigour strength and authority of a Law Statute and Act of Parliament.
- and to be observed for ever. Like as this above written Treaty and whole Articles thereof are by his Majestie and the Estates of the Parliament of Scotland to be enacted and ordained to have in all time coming the full force and strength of a true and perfect security and Act of the said Parliament. And his Majesty for himselfe and his successours doth promise in verbo Principis never to come in the contrary of this Statute and Sanction nor any thing therein contained but to hold the same in all points firme and stable and shall cause it to be truly observed by all his majesties lieges according to the tenour and intent thereof for now and ever. Like as the Parliaments of both Kingdomes gives full assurance and do make publique faith in name of both Kingdomes respectively for the true and faithfull observance of this treatie and whole Articles thereof inviolably hinc inde in all times to come.

CHAPTER XXX.

Rot. Parl. 12 C. II. AN ACT for the Attainder of severall persons guilty of the horrid Murther of his late Sacred Majestie King Charles the first.

The Murder of King Charles 1. how contrived.

IN all humble manner shew unto Your most Excellent Majestie Your Majestyes most dutyfull and loyall Subjects the Lord^e and Commons in Parliament assembled That the Horrid and Execrable Murder of Your Majestyes Royall Father our late most Gracious Sovereigne Charles the First of ever blessed and glorious memory hath beene committed by a party of wretched men desperately wicked and hardened in their impietie, who haveing first plotted and contrived the ruine and distruction of this excellent Monarchy, and with it of the true Reformed Protestant Religion which had beene soe long protected by it and flourished under it, found it necessary in order to [their¹] carrying on of their pernicious and traiterous designes to throw downe all the Bulwarks and Fences of Law, and to subvert the very being and constitution of Parliament that soe they might at last make their way open for any further attempts upon the Sacred person of his Majestie himselfe, And that for the more easy effecting thereof they did first seduce some part of the then Army into a compliance and then kepte the rest in subjection to them partly for hopes of preferment and cheifely for feare of looseing their employments and arreares untill by these and other more odious arts and devices they had fully strengthened themselves both in power and faction, which being done they did declare against all manner of Treaties with the person of the King even then while a Treaty by advice of both Houses of Parliament was in being remonstrate against the Houses of Parliament for such proceedings, seize upon His Royall person while the Commissioners were returned to the House of Parliament with his Answer, and when his concessions had beene voted a ground for peace, seize upon the House of Commons seclude and imprison some Members force out others and there being left but a small remnant of their owne Creatures (not a tenth part of the whole) did seeke to shelter themselves by this weake pretence under the name and authoritie of a Parliament, and in that name laboured to prosecute what was yet behinde and unfinished of their long intended Treason and Conspiracie, To this purpose they prepared an Ordinance for erecting a prodigious and unheard of Tribunall which they called An High Court of Justice for tryall of his Majestie and haveing easily procured it to passe in their House of Commons as it then stood moulded ventured to send it up from thence to the Peeres then sitting who totally rejected it, whereupon their rage and fury increasing they presume to passe it alone as an Act of the Commons and in the name of the Commons of England, and haveing gained the pretence of Law made by a power of their owne makeing pursue it with all possible force and cruelty untill at last upon the thirtieth day of January One thousand six hundred forty and eight His Sacred Majestie was brought unto a Scaffold and there publicly murdered before the Gates of his owne Royall Pallace, And because by this horred action the Protestant Religion hath received the greatest wound and reproach and the people of England the most insupportable shame and infamy that it was possible for the enimies of God and the King to bring upon us whilst the Fanaticke Rage of a few Miscreants (who were as farr from being true Protestants as they were from being true Subjects) stand^e imputed by our Adversaries to the whole Nation, We therefore your Majestyes said dutyfull and loyall Subjects the Lord^e and Commons in Parliament assembled doe hereby renounce abominate and protest against that Impious Fa^ct, the execrable Murther and most [unparalleled²] Treason committed against the Sacred person and life of our said late Sovereigne Your Majestyes most Royall Father, and all proceedings tending thereunto, And doe beseech Your most Excellent Majestie that it may be declared, And be it hereby declared That by the undoubted and Fundamentall Lawes of this Kingdome, neither the Peeres of this Realme nor the Commons nor both together in Parliament or out of Parliament, nor the people collectively or [presentatively³] nor any other persons whatsoever ever had hath have or ought to have any coercive power over the persons of the Kings of this Realme, And for the better vindication of our selves to posteritie, and as a lasting Monument of our otherwise inexpressible detestation and abhorrency of this villanous and abominable Fa^ct We doe further beseech Your most Excellent Majestie that it may be Enacted, And bee it hereby Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majestie by and with the advice and consent of the Lord^e and Commons in this present Parliament assembled That every thirtieth day of January unlesse it falls out to be upon the Lord^e day and then the day next following shall be for ever hereafter sett apart to be kepte and observed in all the Churches and Chappells of these Your Majestyes Kingdomes of England and Ireland Dominion of Wales and Towne of Berwicke upon Tweede and the Isles of Jersey and Guernsey and all other Your Majestyes Dominions as an Anniversary day of Fasting and Humiliation to implore the mercy of God that neither the guilt of that Sacred and Innocent Blood, nor those other sinns by which God was provoked to deliver up both us and our King into the hand^e of cruell and unreasonable men may at any time hereafter be visited upon us or this Act.

Seditious Sermons, Pamphlets, and Speeches.

What shall be adjudged Treason during the Life of the King.

THE Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament deeply weighing and considering the miseries and calamities of well nigh twenty yeares before your Majesties happy Return and withall reflecting upon the causes & occasions of soe great and deplorable confusions do in all humility and thankfulnes acknowledge Your Majesties incomparable Grace and Goodnes to Your People in Your Free and Generall Pardon Indempnity and Oblivion by which Your Majestie hath beene pleased to deliver Your Subjects not only from the Punishment but alsoe from the Reproach of their former miscarriages which unexampled Piety and Clemency of Your Majesty hath enflamed the hearts of us Your Subjects with an ardent desire to expresse all possible zeal and duty in the care and preservation of Your Majesties Person in whose Honour and Happines consists the good and welfare of Your People and in preventing (as much as may be) all Treasonable and Seditious Practices and Attempts for the time to come And because the growth and increase of the late troubles & disorders did in a very great measure proceed from a multitude of seditious Sermons Pamphlets and Speeches dayly preached printed and published with a transcendent boldnes defaming the Person and Government of your Majestie and your Royall Father wherein men were to much encouraged and (above all) from a wilfull mistake of the Supream and lawfull Authoritie whilst men were forward to cry up and maintaine those Orders and Ordinances Oathes and Covenants to be Acts legall and warrantable which in themselves had not the least colour of Law or Justice to support them from which kind of distempers as the present Age is not yet wholly freed so Posterity may be apt to relapse into them if a timely remedy be not provided Wee therefore the Lords and Commons in Parliament assembled having duly considered the p̄misses and remembring that in the Thirteenth yeare of the Reigne of Queene Elizabeth of ever blessed memory a right good and profitable Law was made for preservation of Her Majesties Person Do most humbly beseech Your most Excellent Majesty that it may be Enacted And be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords and Commons in this p̄sent Parliament assembled and by Authoritie of the same
That if any person or persons whatsoever after the four and twentieth day of June in the yeare of our Lord One

To be proved by Two Witnesses.

AND be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid That if any person or persons at any time after the four and twentieth day of June in the yeare of our Lord One thousand six hundred sixty and one during His Ma^{ties} life shall maliciously and advisedly publish or affirm the King to be an Heretick or a Papist or that he endeavours to introduce Popery or shall maliciously and advisedly by writing printing preaching or other speaking expresse publish utter or declare any Words Sentences or other thing or things to incite or stir up the people to hatred or dislike of the Person of His Majestie or the established Government then every such person and persons being thereof legally convicted shall be disabled to have or enjoye and is hereby disabled and made incapable of having holding enjoying or exercising any place Office or promotion Ecclesiasticall Civill or Military or any other Employment in Church or State other then that of his Peerage and shall likewise be liable to such further and other punishments as by the Common Laws or Statutes of this Realm may be inflicted in such cases
